For Immediate Release

SEBASTIEN'S FIGHT NIGHT

Picotin's humorous and affable General Manager/Owner, Sebastien Reullier, has taken up the gauntlet to participate in the White Collar Charity Fight Night, a charity amateur boxing event hosted by Vanda Boxing Club and Vanda Promotions for men and women from all walks of life. Sebastien's 'dual-edged glove' for this affair is his support for the Children's Surgical Center, a life-changing charity for children in need of rehabilitating surgeries in Cambodia, and the opportunity to improve his physical regime through fitness and discipline.

Join Picotin for an adrenaline-pumping and fun-filled evening hailed as "Sebastien's Fight Night" on 20th April when the family restaurant proudly celebrates the courageous challenge of one of its founder members. The event takes off at 7.00 in the evening and patrons will get to meet Sebastien in person as well as watch the replay of the exciting fight screened on television. Another highlight will be the auction of Sebastien's boxing gloves plus other memorabilia from the fight, the proceeds of which will go to a chosen charity. In keeping with the spirit of merry-making, all bidders go home with a souvenir poster.

Not to be left out of the forthcoming melee, Chef Cyrille has enthusiastically jumped in with the production of his specially created barbeque buffet worthy of a great fight night. The scrumptious array of goodies offered is priced at just $50 nett.

Located at 100 Turf Club Road, Singapore 287992, Picotin opens daily for breakfast 8am to 11am, and from lunch to dinner, from 12 noon to 10.30pm. For reservations or more information about Picotin's Sebastien's Fight Night, please call 6877 1191.
